ABSTRACT & RELEVANCE STATEMENT	The abstract should include a short description of the project, highlighting the problem, purpose, aims, design, methods, analytic strategy, anticipated impact, and plans for future research. The abstract should be able to stand alone in describing your project and be written in a way so that the content is accessible to a variety of audiences. The relevance statement should indicate anticipated importance and applicability to policy and/or practice in nurse anesthesiology.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS	Describe your accomplishments and any outcomes achieved. List the major goals and milestones. Indicate if any goals or milestones changed. If any challenges were identified, describe the challenges and how they were addressed. If participants were enrolled in the study, state the final sample size of enrollment.

KEY PERSONNEL	Describe any changes in key personnel. Provide a Biographical Sketch for any new key personnel since application. If there have been no changes to key personnel, indicate there have been no changes.

DISSEMINATION	Describe any disseminations resulting from the project (presentations, publications, fact sheets, toolkits, web material, educational curricula). Provide any references for conference presentations or publications. Describe if data were made available through public or restricted use, such as in a data repository. If any inventions were developed, report them and indicate plans for dissemination. If there has been no change, please state so.

MENTOR REPORT (if applicable, please attach letter)	For training grants, post-doctoral fellowships, and career development grants, provide a report from the mentor. The letter should provide a summary of progress and performance in research and any other related development (e.g., course completion).
